Section 3

Independent Earner Tax Credit Entitlement

This credit can be available to taxpayers earning between $24,000 - $48,000

To help us establish if you are entitled to the Independent Earner Tax Credit please answer the following questions.

Are you a NZ tax resident?

Are you or your partner receiving working for families tax credits?

Are you receiving an overseas equivalent of working for families tax credits?

Are you receiving:

Income tested benefit New Zealand Superannuation

Veteran's Pension..... Overseas equivalent of these

Please note your entitlement to IETC is determined monthly. This means that if you don't meet the criteria for any part of a month, then you won't qualify to receive the IETC for the entire month. We will calculate the amount claimable for you.

Portfolio Investment Entities (PIE) Income

PIE income allows for a discounted tax rate on certain investment income. Provided the tax rate (PIR rate) is correct the income is not required to be included in the annual income tax return. However if the rate is too low, the income is required to be included in the tax return and you lose the benefit of the lower rate. If the rate is too high, you are paying too much tax and will not get a refund of the overpaid tax.

Section 4

Trusts

If your Trust operates a business, please complete section 2.

If the Trust holdings are limited to family home and investments, please complete just this section.
